

Occupational Medicine Research Application

WorkSafeNB's Chief Medical Office calls for proposals to further occupational medicine research in New Brunswick. Priority will be given to topics relevant to occupational medicine and health, such as medicinal cannabis and workplace wellness. Funding is available to support appropriate proposals to a maximum of $10,000.

Research study: _____

Research question: _____

Population: _____

Intervention: _____

Control (if any): _____

Outcomes: _____

Design: _____

_____
_____

Proposed budget (provide a detailed breakdown):

_____
_____

Principal investigator: _____

Name and title: _____

Organization affiliation (medical network, university or research facility for payment if application is successful):

_____

To submit an application or for more information, contact Ankona Banerjee, medical services analyst:

- Phone: 506 738-4250
- Fax: 506 642-0703
- E-mail: ankona.banerjee@ws-ts.nb.ca

Completed forms must be received by November 22, 2019 for consideration.