

Variance Request to reduce JHSC meeting frequency

Employer name: _____

Workplace location: _____

Date of application: _____

Nature of request: _____

Indicate the type of variance being requested (Every other month, quarterly, summer vacation, specific months, etc.)

Subsection 16(1) of the Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Act states:

Where the nature of employment at a place of employment presents a low risk to the health or safety of employees at the place of employment, the Commission may, upon receipt of an application from the committee and after such consultation with any interested persons as it considers advisable, reduce the frequency of committee meetings, if the standard of health and safety of the employees is not thereby materially affected.

To qualify for a variance:

- Each item in the Variance Request Form on page 2 must be complied with.
- JHSC co-chairs must indicate compliance with the criteria by inserting a checkmark for each item in the Variance Request Form on page 2.
- Request must be accompanied by copies of minutes from JHSC meetings [criteria 2(i) or 2(ii)] and Terms of Reference (criteria 2(c)).
- JHSC co-chairs must print their names and sign the request (criteria 3) in the allotted space on page 2.
- The WorkSafeNB education consultant and health and safety officer responsible for the workplace must support the request.

A variance that has been granted:

- Will be for a period of up to two years from the date it was granted (workplace is responsible for reapplying before variance expires).
- May be revoked if conditions change.

The request with supportive documentation is to be forwarded to:
